Lorianne Hanson is a member of the Bullivant Casualty Law practice, with a primary focus on complex litigation, including product liability and commercial litigation. She excels at distilling complicated issues into actionable strategies. She has enjoyed successfully defending clients at trial in both state and federal court and has brought home multiple summary judgment victories involving difficult issues.

Lorianne's practice covers the West Coast, following her own migration from California, to Oregon, to Washington. She is well-versed in the local nuances of each jurisdiction and enjoys working as regional counsel in high-exposure product liability cases and lead counsel on local matters. She thrives on building in-depth knowledge of her clients and their businesses and brings a practical and seasoned approach to evaluating and advising as to litigation risk and strategy.
