Associate

D 206 521 6487 E sean.murphy@bullivant.com

Sean Murphy works with clients to resolve catastrophic tort, product liability, and professional negligence cases. He also handles commercial litigation, including debtor/creditor and complex business disputes. The cases he handles often involve difficult factual backgrounds and nuanced laws. Sean finds ways to overcome those challenges based on the facts of each unique case.

Sean sees practicing law as an art and is dedicated to his craft. He enjoys getting creative to obtain exceptional results for clients and takes great pride in his written and oral advocacy. Clients appreciate his unconditional dedication to their case, excellent leadership skills, and attention to detail.

While in law school, Sean served as a Senior Editor for the Georgetown Environmental Law Review. He also served as a long-term research assistant to Professor J. Maria Glover, an expert in civil procedure and complex litigation.
